REVENUE & REV. SECT. 30 OCT 1922

REVENUE & REV. SECRETARIAT 1099 22-23

To

The Secretary to Government of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore, Revenue Department.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith letter No.56 dated 13th October 1922 received from the Head Master of the Ayurvedic College, Mysore, recommending that Pandit V. Biligiri Iyengar who has been appointed as Lecturer in the College may be permitted to look after the writer's duties and that he may be given an allowance of Rs.15/- a month for the extra work.

2. In this connection, I have the honor to report that consequent on the acceptance of the resignation tendered by Mr. T. Srinivasa-Iyengar, Lecturer, Pandit V. Biligiri Iyengar was appointed as Junior Pandit on Rs.30/- as resolved by the Committee at the meeting held on Sunday the 8th October 1922 and that the Head Master was personally instructed to direct V. Biligiri Iyengar to look after the writer's work, pending further orders in the matter.

3. I find that the duties attached to the writer's appointment in the College are not heavy enough to require the services of a full-time man and that one of the Pandits can conveniently look after the work in addition to teaching work in the College.

— V. Biligi Iyengar who has passed the Ayurveda Vidwat Examination and has read English up to Matriculation standard was appointed writer in 1915 as there was no vacancy in the tutorial staff then and he has been discharging his duties satisfactorily.

4. As the writer's work could be conveniently attended to by I.P.

Mr. Rilgiri Ivengar along with and without prejudice to hereditary work. I beg to recommend that the arrangement may be sanctioned as a tentative measure for a period of six months; and that an allowance of Rs.12/8/- per mensem being half the pay of the writer may be granted to him for doing the writer's work along with his duties as a teacher, the balance of Rs.12-8-0 being brought under savings.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

for Kuzrai Commissioner.

14/10/22.

Sir, With reference to your General No 9 dated Mysore 9th October 1922, appointing Mr. V. Biligiri Iyengar temporarily as a Pandit on Rs 30 in place of Mr. T. Sreenivasa Iyengar, resigned, I have the honour to report that instead of appointing a new writer who will not be useful for some months till he picks up the work, Mr. Biligiri Iyengar may be directed to look after this work as well in the mornings, in addition to his lectoring to the classes in the afternoons, and I beg to submit that he is quite capable of attending to both the works. He may be given an allowance per month. on this work -

I have the honour to remain,
Sir,
your most obedient Servant,

[illegible]

Head Master.
